

WIU Women's Center
320 Seal Hall
298-2242
www.wc.wiu.edu
Program/Presentation Request Form

Date Request Submitted: _____ Date Request Received by WC: _____

Person making request: _____

Position/Title: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

E-mail address: _____

Program/Presentation topic (see list on reverse): _____

Title of Program (if applicable): _____

Date Program/Presentation to be held (please allow at least 2 weeks from date of request) _____

Time Program/Presentation to begin _____

Program/Presentation length (please circle): 15 min. 30 min. 45 min. 60 min. 75 min. Other: _____

Location Program/Presentation to be held: _____

A/V Equipment Needed: _____

Alternative dates/times: _____

Nature of group/target audience: _____

Estimated attendance: _____

Please add any additional information that may aid in planning the presentation:

Publicity will be done by: ___ Person making request ___ Women's Center ___ Other: _____

Date publicity needs to be out: _____

Room will be reserved by: ___ Person making request ___ Women's Center ___ Other: _____

Equipment will be reserved by: ___ Person making request ___ Women's Center ___ Other: _____

Women's/Feminist Issues Speakers Bureau Topics

Following is a partial list of topics on which Women's Center staff can do presentations or help you find a speaker for a program/presentation. This is by no means a complete or exhaustive list, and some topics are similar or closely related. Many also are not exclusive to women and girls. Please check and circle all that apply, and provide additional specific areas and elaborative comments. Also please add any additional relevant topics that are not listed.

- Feminism/Womanism (e.g., Feminist/Womanist Theories, Radical Feminism, Ecofeminism, First Wave, Second Wave, Third Wave, Feminist Men, Activism, etc.)
- Women's Studies
- Women's History/Herstory (at WIU; in the local community; regional; U.S.; International/World)
- Intersection of race, class and gender
- Women's Health (e.g., menstruation, pregnancy/childbirth, perimenopause, menopause, osteoporosis, breast cancer, lesbian health issues, body image/eating disorders, nutrition/ diet, exercise, gynecological health, mental health)
- Choice Issues (contraceptive, reproductive, abortion, etc.)
- Relationships (e.g., women's friendships; platonic opposite sex; co-workers; heterosexual dating and marriage; same-sex dating and commitments/unions; with heterosexual or same-sex partners, with parents; with children; family; separation, divorce, estrangement, loss, etc.)
- Gay/lesbian/bisexual/transgender issues/awareness/education
- Parenting/Childrearing (e.g., co-parenting, single-parenting, rearing strong daughters and sensitive sons, non-sexist childrearing, etc.)
- Childcare (e.g., availability/accessibility, cost, etc.)
- Care giving (of children, partners, aging parents, other family members, etc.)
- Sex-role stereotyping
- Non-sexist Language
- Home Repair and/or Automobile Maintenance
- Gender equity in education (elementary, secondary, post-secondary/higher education)
- Girls and women in athletics and recreational sports
- Women in Leadership (e.g., organizational, professional, governmental, etc.)
- Women in Politics/Government
- Women in the Military
- Employment issues: (e.g., career exploration, pay equity, sexual harassment, re-entering the work force, starting a small business; unemployment, etc.)
- Women in Business (e.g., career opportunities, climbing the corporate ladder, women-owned businesses, etc.)
- Women in traditionally male-dominated fields/non-traditional academic and career fields (e.g., science, technology, LEJA/police officers, attorneys, judges; firefighters; medicine, construction; trades)
- Women and Finance (e.g., earning, saving, investing, and spending money wisely; bankruptcy; welfare, etc.)
- Women in Literature
- Portrayal of Girls and Women in the Media (e.g., films, television, advertising, magazines, video games, Internet, etc.)
- Objectification of girls and women
- Violence Against Women (e.g., rape/sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking, sexual harassment, emotional abuse, men's roles in stopping VAW, etc.)
- Gender Discrimination
- Women's Legal Rights and Legal Issues
- Women's Spirituality
- Women and Religion
- Women in the Arts
- Women of Color
- International Women
- Gender and Communication
- Self-esteem
- Time Management
- Stress Management
- Additional topics not listed: